Race Summary:

All horses walked up evenly with a short head between them when they were released at the starting line. Horses jumped cleanly with no interference.

The first 300 metres was run at a slow pace, with Reid River R-Mani stretching out to a 4 length lead. The tempo of the race increased from the 600 metre mark and approaching the home turn, Aloha Thee Desperado moved 3 horses off the rail. Reid River R-Mani, shifted out slightly rounding the home turn, however did not create any interference. Aloha Thee Desperado drew within 2 lengths of the leader in the final 150 metres and this margin was held through to the finish line.
